Hope for Two was formed in 1997 by three women, Patty Murray, Lisa Radel, and Mary Rose McDermott who were all given the diagnosis of cancer while pregnant. Hope for Two is based in Buffalo and registered not-for-profit 501(c)(3) Corporation, who serves women in Western New York, throughout the United States, and seventeen other countries.

Your sponsorship and/or attendance at this event will help us continue to provide valuable information, hope, and support through our peer to peer counseling services to pregnant women who are given the devastating diagnosis of cancer. All donations will be used for the sole purpose and benefit of patients and their families. Such needs include linkage to a survivor who once faced the same diagnosis, is now cancer free and will be giving HOPE to a newly diagnosed woman! Hope for Two support women also help make referrals to medical professionals who can answer complex questions on behalf of the patient and provide direction to medical journal articles where women can read about the use of cancer treatments while pregnant. Lastly, Hope for Two makes referrals to agencies that provide financial assistance and aid in obtaining breast milk, in the event of their being unable to breast feed due to receiving chemotherapy or undergoing radiation.
